THE MANDARIN.

While seated in his palanquin, Rode Ling Gum Foo, a mandarin; Some laundry people working nigh, "With soap that's made beyond the sea, Were hanging garments out to dry. The IVORY SOAP they call it there,

A finer sight I have not seen! "We washed those garments," answered he,

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

He beckoned with his golden fan. We find it good beyond compare. And thus addressed the nearest man: Then said the mandarin profound: "Why do the robes upon your line "Go, order me a thousand pound, Like glaciers of Alaska shine? And they who use another kind, Since we set out from Ning Po Keen, Shall prison cell and scaffold find!"

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it
